Following a full and lengthy life it is with heavy hearts we announce the passing of our dear father, grandfather, and great grandfather, Arthur, in his 93rd year at the Emerson Personal Care Home.

Left to cherish his memory are his son Ken (Carolyn) Schwark, daughter Leona (Real) Tetrault; grandchildren Kerry (Jackie) Schwark, Corinne (Thorsten) Stanze, René Tetrault, and Lisa (Dustin) Voth; great grandchildren Ryan and Sadie Schwark, Alexander and Robert Stanze, and Ronin Voth. Also surviving are brothers-in-law Walter (Ruth) Weiss, Arthur (Jean) Weiss, and Clarence (Betty) Weiss; sisters-in-law Cathy and Anne Weiss; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his wife Ruth in 2003, son Robert in 1951, and sister Ann Wagner in 2006.

Dad was born on the family farm east of Emerson to Theodor and Mathilde (Hartwig) Schwark. He married Helene Ruth Weiss from Dominion City on November 19, 1943. Dad farmed all of his life and together they raised three children, Ken, Robert (deceased), and Leona.

Dad served on church council and Manitoba Pool Elevators. He was a good dancer, enjoyed curling, and playing crib was his forte. He always drove a Ford, and loved to watch hockey and curling on TV. Dad was a big man with a big heart and big hands!

Special thanks to the doctors and caregivers at the Emerson Personal Care Home at which Dad was a resident since January 2007.

The funeral service will be held at the Zion Lutheran Church in Friedensthal on Saturday November 19, with arrangements by the Morris Funeral Home.
